IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH.

Civil Revision No.3780 of 2006

Date of Decision: October 15, 2007

Balwinder Singh .....Petitioner

Versus

Punjab State and others .....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE S. D. ANAND

Present: Mr.KS Rekhi, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.Piyush Kant Jain, Additional Advocate General, Punjab.

S. D. ANAND, J.

1. Accepting the plea raised by the Judgment-debtor – respondent that the entire due amount (arrears of pay, leave encashment, difference of death-cum-retirement gratuity and the amount of interest) had been paid to the Decree-holder – petitioner, the learned Trial Court dismissed the Execution Application as satisfied.

2. In response to a grievance on behalf of the petitioner that arrears of the pay and some other items of dues had not been paid to the petitioner, learned State counsel states that a copy of the chart indicating the payments made to the petitioner from time to time in terms of his entitlement would be filed in the Executing Court. In that eventuality, the petitioner would be entitled to file a counter in order to be able to indicate which item of dues had been left out in terms of the impugned decree. It is on a comparative appraisal of the presentation that the learned Executing Court shall dispose of the matter afresh.

3. Disposed of accordingly.
